PEOPLE ARE FRIGHTENED BY MAD DOG

Posse Is Formed and Animal Is Quickly Killed.

BIT THREE OTHER DOGS.

Considerable of a scare was caused among the residents of Fallowfield township yesterday, when a mad dog made its appearance. The dog was finally shot and killed.

The animal was first noticed by Floyd Bonnell, when it came on his farm. It bit a valuable beatle hound and two pups belonging to him, and passed on its way, snapping at geese, chickens, and other animals. Mr. Bonnell secured a gun and watched for the dog, which made a circle and came back through the same territory. He shot it once through one of the hind legs, but it went on. A posse was organized and followed the animal in to a valley, where it was finally killed.

The animal was dark brown evidently of mongrel breed. Mr. Bonnell shot his hound and the two pups. So far as is known no other aniamls were bitten by the dog.

Demonstration of the Modart Corset

Beginning today at rooms 24 and 25 in the Wilbur Hotel, Mrs. M. Stewart Smith is giving a series of corset demonstrations which will be of interest to the women of this community. For this purpose she has secured the services of Madame Gleason, an expert corset demonstrator, who cannot only fit these articles to perfection but is able to give a line of instructions in corset lore that is valuable to the wearers.

The lines shown and demonstrated are the celebrated Modart and the Gossard brands. Madame Gleason has a line of forms that show what the human form should be, and how to attain the desired results by means of the corsets shown. Mrs. Stewart Smith is well known to the women of the community in the line of corset fitting, and the demonstrations, which are conducted evenings as well as during the daytime, will no doubt attract large crowds.

CHILD'S BODY TIED IN BOX FOUND BY BOY

The dead body of a female infant which from appearances might be anywhere from a week to four weeks old, was found tied in a small box, in the river a short distance above the railroad crossing, between Speers and Charleroi this morning by Walton Clark, a boy, who was playing nearby. Notifying his mother, who in turn notified T. C. Reppert of Belle Vernon. Deputy Coroner M. T. Crowley of Charleroi was called, and took the body in charge. It was brought to Correll and Crowley's Undertaking rooms here, where it is now pending an investigation. It is likely that an autopsy will be held. From indications the body had been in the water for two weeks or a month, and was much decomposed.

MANY ATTEND THE OPENING OF EVANS MILLINERY PARLORS

Large crowds attended the annual spring opening of Evans' Millinery parlors, on McKean avenue Saturday afternoon and evening. The display was if possible greater than ever before, and the visitors who flocked the store from early afternoon until late at night were greatly pleased. Souvenirs of beauty leaves were given all visitors.

The new styles which were displayed to the best effect called forth much comment. The different shapes are more pleasing this year than they have been for many seasons, and the critical eyes of the fashionable women who attended the opening noted that here was the latest in these new styles.

The Old Story

Long time ago, when the animals were getting their freedom suits news was sent around that every one was to come to the great man's castle to be fitted out. The squirrel invited the rabbit to go for a set of teeth, but he said wait. The cat ask him to go for claws, but the rabbit said there is plenty of time. But when it came to claws and teeth, he came to his senses, and made a run for the castle, only to find there was nothing to fit him, like some people of today who put off having their eyes properly fitted with glasses, when it costs them nothing to have them examined at

CHILD'S BODY TIED IN BOX FOUND BY BOY

The dead body of a female infant which from appearances might be anywhere from a week to four weeks old, was found tied in a small box, in the river a short distance above the railroad crossing, between Speers and Charleroi this morning by Walton Clark, a boy, who was playing nearby. Notifying his mother, who in turn notified T. C. Reppert of Belle Vernon, Deputy Coroner M. T. Crowley of Charleroi was called, and took the body in charge. It was brought to Correll and Crowley's Undertaking rooms here, where it is now pending an investigation. It is likely that an autopsy will be held. From indications the body had been in the water for two weeks or a month, and was much decomposed.

MANY ATTEND THE OPENING OF EVANS MILLINERY PARLORS

Large crowds attended the annual spring opening of Evans' Millinery parlors, on McKean avenue Saturday afternoon and evening. The display was if possible greater than ever before, and the visitors who flocked the store from early afternoon until late at night were greatly pleased. Souvenirs of beauty leaves were given all visitors.

The new styles which were displayed to the best effect called forth much comment. The different shapes are more pleasing this year than they have been for many seasons, and the critical eyes of the fashionable women who attended the opening noted that here was the latest in these new styles.

Arch Osburn Joins the Columbus Team

Recommends New Quarters.

Judge J. A. McIlvaine handed down an opinion Saturday that the place in the jail where delinquent children are now held for juvenile court is not a proper place for the purpose. He recommends that other quarters be provided for the purpose as convenient to the court house as possible. The room in the jail is needed for other purposes.

There were eight arrests in all, and at the subsequent hearings the offenders were fined from $1.00 up to $10.00 and costs. There was a fight on Fallowfield avenue, while ejectment proceedings were instituted against a big foreigner who hailed from up river, and insisted upon visiting at the home of a man by the name of Costik on the hill. He was given a bad nose, was injured on the forehead, and at a hearing before Burgess Risbeck was fined $10 00 and costs.

BEAUTIFUL MEMORIAL SERVICES

Charleroi Aerie of Eagles Commemorate Memories of Dead.

WOODA N. CARR SPEAKS

To commemorate the memories of the deceased brothers, Charleroi Aerie of Eagles, No. 309, held their annual memorial services in the Palace Theatre yesterday afternoon. Wooda N. Carr, Esq. of Uniontown made the principal address.

Durinig the past year there was one member of the Charleroi lodge who died, R. L. Ballard. In all there have been nine deaths in the local lodge. Joe T. S. Cowan of Roscoe, pronounced the eulogy, telling of the virtues of the "one who has gone before," and speaking for the better living of the present generation.

Mr. Carr in his address dealt on the theme of "Our Hopes and Aspirations." He eloquently spoke of the desire of all for better things to come and told of the best way to obtain them. The motto of the order, "Liberty, Truth, Justice, Equality," he took up, and told of the broad meaning of each as interpreted by members of the Eagles' Organization.

Special music was furnished for the occasion by the Elk's Glee Club, under Prof. I. T. Daniel, which sang two selections, "Crossing the Bar", and "Johnston's "Nearer, My God to Thee," the latter with especially telling effect. Mrs. James Schnelbach was the soloist, rendering two selections, "O, Dry Those Tears," and "That Shadow Land so Beautiful." The Palace Orchestra, under H. Barnhart, rendered appropriate selections. Frank Kline, the worthy president, was in charge of the program, Chaplain Charles Walgreen said the prayer, and pronounced the benediction.

Holy Week.

Today ushers in Holy Week, the last week in Lent preceeing Easter Sunday. The term holy is applied because it commemorates Christ's death for the redemption of mankind. In the early Christian ages it was called the "Great Week," and was observed with great solemnity and ceremony. Even now, when religion is not the burning issue it was with the early Christian fathers. Holy Week exercises a profound influence upon the civilized world.

Although purely symbolical in its obsevance, Holy Week serves to strengthen the faith and revive the spiritual energy of those who may have faltered and wandered slightly from the divine pathway. The story of the death of Christ, the resurrection, and the desolate period intervening between these two tragic events are told anew, that the world may imbibe the lesson of love, truth, justice and humanity, as exemplified by the teachings of the Divine Master.

The lesson is not lost. Holy Week finds each recurring anniversary adding to its significance. The spiritual side of man needs special attention as well as the material, and no more fitting period could be chosen for this purpose than the anniversary of the death and resurrection of the Savior.

The Old Story

Long time ago, when the animals were getting their freedom suits news was sent around that every one was to come to the great man's castle to be fitted out. The squirrel invited the rabbit to go for a set of teeth, but he said wait. The cat ask him to go for claws, but the rabbit said there is plenty of time. But when the other animals came back with claws and teeth he came to his senses, and made a run for the castle, only to find there was nothing to fit him, like some people of today who put off having their eyes properly fitted with glasses, when it costs them nothing to have them examined at

"The Great White Way" for Charleroi

Charleroi is getting a sample of what the "Great White Way" of Broadway is to New York people this week. On Saturday the West Penn Electric company erected at the corner of Fallowfield avenue and Fifth street, a row of Tungston burner street lights, as an experiment. The lights are of exceptional brilliancy, and are of the same kind used in Norfolk, Va., and other places. Many merchants of Charleroi are anxious to have them placed in the principal business parts of town.

According to findings of eminent geologists, the earth is only about 400,000,000 years old. It will be getting gray haired soon.

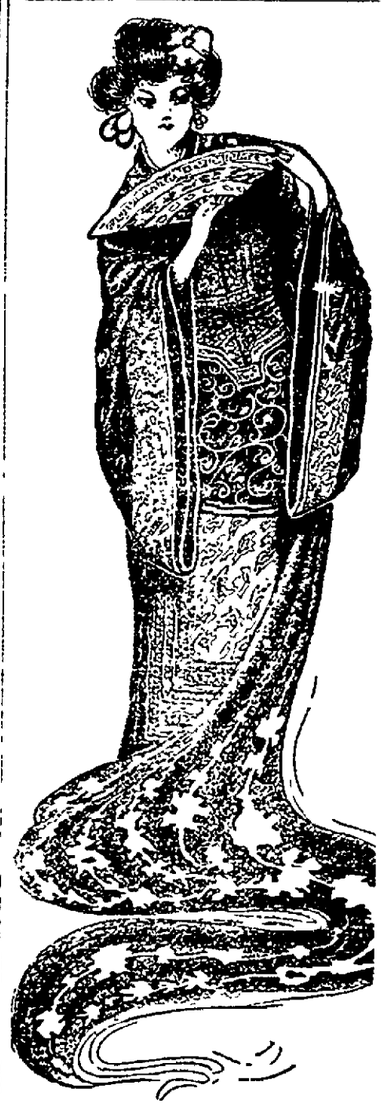
In real Philadelphia strike style, a number of Greek peasants got after a car over in Athens, Greece, the other day, and destroyed the affair. That's one evil that has been caused by the strike.

Col. Roosevelt will lecture in France in the French language, and in Germany in the German language. What would happen should he get his manuscript mixed?

Peary is booked to lecture in Pittsburg. Cook lectured there once, and still he failed to make good.

Edgar R. Abell went to Cailfornia last evening to visit his father, J. E. Abell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown entertained at thher home on Shady avenue at dinner yesterday a number of friends from Charleroi.



There will be a Chi-Namel Demonstration at our store on March 28-29. Do not miss the opportunity to learn in five minutes how to secure a new hardwood floor for $2.50, and how to have a Mission finish dining room, den or sitting room without the expense of removing old paint or varnish.

Any old floor, oil cloth or linoleum made to look like new hardwood, any style of grain. Lesson free by special instructor. T. P. Grant, 424 Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi, Pa.

Holy Week.

Today ushers in Holy Week, the last week in Lent preceding Easter Sunday. The term holy is applied because it commemorates Christ's death for the redemption of mankind. In the early Christian ages it was called the "Great Week," and was observed with great solemnity and ceremony. Even now, when religion is not the burning issue it was with the early Christian fathers. Holy Week exercises a profound influence upon the civilized world.

Although purely symbolical in its obsevance, Holy Week serves to strengthen the faith and revive the spiritual energy of those who may have faltered and wandered slightly from the divine pathway. The story of the death of Christ, the resurrection, and the desolate period intervening between these two tragic events are told anew, that the world may imbibe the lesson of love, truth, justice and humanity, as exemplified by the teachings of the Divine Master.

The lesson is not lost. Holy Week finds each recurring anniversary adding to its significance. The spiritual side of man needs special attention as well as the material, and no more fitting period could be chosen for this purpose than the anniversary of the death and resurrection of the Savior.
